

Questions re. Art Since 1920

1. Which artist, sometimes called 'the mother of American modernism', is best known for her more than 200 paintings of flowers? A: Georgia O'Keeffe
2. What is the title of the 1937 painting made by Pablo Picasso in response to the German & Italian bombing of a northern Spanish town that same year? A: Guernica
3. Which artist, best known for his pop-art pieces 'Whaam!' and 'Drowning Girl', created a surrealist sculpture titled 'El Cap de Barcelona' for the 1992 Olympic Games? A: Roy Lichtenstein
4. What was particularly notable about the Turner Prize awarded in 2019? A: The entire shortlist (Lawrence Abu Hamdan, Helen Cammock, Oscar Murillo, and Tai Shani) was awarded the prize jointly after asking to be considered as one group.
5. In 1968 the radical feminist Valerie Solanas was jailed for 'reckless assault with intent to harm' after having shot which prominent artist, whom she claimed "had too much control over [her] life"? A: Andy Warhol
6. Which gallery and cultural hub opened in Paris in 1977, and is famous for being the first prominent example of an 'inside-out building': its colour-coded plumbing, electrical, and air circulation conduits visible on the outside? A: Centre Georges Pompidou
7. Other than her gender, what fact contributed to the work of abstract expressionist Lee Krasner being arguably under-appreciated throughout much of her career? A: She was married to Jackson Pollock.
8. Pest Control is a service established in 2008 by an artist to answer questions of authenticity around their work. Enquiries can be made by members of the public or collectors, and if a piece is found to be genuine, a Pest Control certificate is issued. Name the artist. A: Banksy
9. Which artist, whose first solo show was at New York's MoMA in 1938, became the first Mexican artist to enter the Louvre's collection when they bought a self-portrait titled 'El marco / The Frame' the following year? A: Frida Kahlo
10. Which artist, who once wrote graffiti under the name SAMO, and included a signature

three-pronged crown in many of his works, died of a heroin overdose in August 1988 at the age of 27? A: Jean-Michel Basquiat